

Biography

Minoru Okamoto

*Senior Advisor to the CEO
TE Connectivity*

Minoru (Mooch) Okamoto serves as Senior Advisor to the CEO at TE Connectivity, one of the world's largest providers of products and solutions that connect and protect the flow of power and data in virtually every industry. With fiscal 2011 sales of $14 billion, TE Connectivity has approximately 100,000 employees in 50 countries.

In addition to his role as Advisor to the CEO, Mr. Okamoto serves as Chairman, TE Japan GK, providing guidance and direction on governance issues as well as driving the growth of TE business in Japan

With over 35 years of TE experience, Mr. Okamoto served most recently as President of TE's Communications & Industrial Solutions (CIS) business. During his tenure at TE, he has held various positions including Senior Vice President of Communications, Computer & Consumer Electronics (CC&CE); Vice President of Asia and Global Computer; Divisional Vice President and Area Director of Asia/Pacific North (Japan & Korea); General Manager of AMP Japan; Director of Asia/Pacific Marketing and General Manager of AMP Taiwan.

Mr. Okamoto is a member of the American Chamber of Commerce, Keizai Doyukai (Japan Association of Corporate Executives) and JEITA (Japan Electronics & Information Technology Industries Association) in Japan. Mr. Okamoto holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Stanford University, California, U.S.

ABOUT TE Connectivity

TE Connectivity is a global, $14 billion company that designs and manufactures approximately 500,000 products that connect and protect the flow of power and data inside the products that touch every aspect of our lives. Our nearly 100,000 employees partner with customers in virtually every industry—from consumer electronics, energy and healthcare, to automotive, aerospace and communication networks—enabling smarter, faster, better technologies to connect products to possibilities. More information on TE Connectivity can be found at <http://www.te.com>.