TE Connectivity offers the new generation MTA benchtop for terminating MTA 100 & 156 series.

The MTA benchtop has higher performance with compact stand-alone design. Especially designed for small to medium volumes, the benchtop is fully equipped for spec-compliant processing of MTA connectors with highly flexible harness layouts. The machine can perform up to 4 millions times termination per year. A conversion kit is available for terminating both MTA 100 & 156. A foot switch triggers termination after operator inserting wires with two hands.
