

The management of Hirschmann Car Communication Kft. is absolutely committed to the satisfaction of its customers and employees, furthermore to the competitiveness and secure future of the company.

The management wish create consistency between reach business purposes and protect the environment, that' why the preservation and improve of the condition of natural and artificial ecosystems gets great relevance.

For the holding of the balance of our basic business purposes, the prevention of the pollution, and continuous development, the company operates an integrated quality and environmental management system, the all the processes are regulated by that system.

Engagement

We are committed to the continuous development of our quality and environmental management system, we take our employees to this, and we use their ideas.

We comply with all the legal regulation apply to the pollution and our internal and external procedures in connection with our activity.

Our purpose is delivering products with 0 ppm. We supply only perfect products to our customers in compliance with deadlines.

We strive to establish a beneficial relationship for both with our suppliers and aspire to develop them to the aspect of car industry.

We expect every of our employees to think quality-oriented way and due to this the responsible work and doing their best performance.

Competitiveness

We promote and develop the environmental awareness of our employees.

We measure and analyse our emissions periodically and check our energy consumption and waste continuously.

We contribute environmental and energy projects to the preservation of our environment.

We employ properly trained and committed colleagues for all of our activities. Continuous development in knowledge and ability is ensured for all of our colleagues.

Satisfaction

Bekescsaba, 12.11.2021

Attila Laurinyecz
plant manager